Privacy information notice for Customers

On 25 May 2018, the new EU Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (GDPR) came into force, which is why, ALUBERG SPA would like to provide some information regarding how customers' personal data is processed.

ALUBERG SPA is the Data Controller (hereinafter referred to as "the Controller"), collecting and processing the customer's personal contact details throughout the established business relation. All personal data is processed in compliance with the applicable data protection laws.

1) How we collect and use personal data

We generally process contact details (such as your address, e-mail address and telephone number) and information such as your job title, which could possibly be requested by the Controller.

Such personal data are processed if, and as long as, the applicable law provides a legal ground for doing so, therefore:

a) if needed to implement the stipulated contract;

b) whether it is necessary to comply with a legal obligation.

2) How we process personal data

Personal data are stored in databases managed by the Controller. Personal data are also used in paper format. In both cases, the personal data provided is processed in compliance with the data protection standards set by the applicable law.

Personal data will not be disclosed, communicated, transferred to third parties or transferred abroad, with the exception of cases expressly provided for by the law.

3) Data Retention

Your data will be kept for as long as necessary and in compliance with our data retention policy. Personal data will only be retained for as long as necessary to fulfil the business purpose for which it was collected and processed, including for the purpose of meeting any legal, regulatory, accounting or reporting requirements.
